“The first thing that a person finds in life and the last to which he holds out his hand, and the most precious that he possesses, even if he does not realize it, is Family Life.”

Blessed Adolph Kolping (1813-1865)

“Into yokuqala umntu athi afikele kuyo kwaye neyokugqibela abambelela kuyo nebaluleke kakhulu kuye lusapho, nokuba akayiqondi loo not kukuba yinxalenye Yosapho.”

Blessed Adolph Kolping (1813-1865)

Die eerste ding wat 'n mens in die lewe vind, en die laaste waarna hy sy hand uitreik, en die kosbaarste wat hy besit, al is hy nie bewus daarvan nie, is Gesinslewe.

Blessed Adolph Kolping (1813-1865)

100TH BIRTHDAY

Dcn George Paynter
21 September 2021

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying,

"Whom shall I send, And who will go for us?"

Then I said,

"Here Am I! Send me!"

HOLY CROSS SISTERS

Rooted in Christ,
we become
a Transforming Presence
immersed in our changing and challenging world.

Living the Paschal Mystery, we seek to bring fullness of life to ourselves, others and our common home.

Living our contemplative and prophetic life, we immerse ourselves among the people on the margins of society, in answer to the need of our time.

APPENDIX I

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CAPE TOWN

Long before the arrival of the Dutch East India Company, Portuguese navigators had consecrated the land by erecting stone crosses and naming landmarks in honour of the Deity, the Blessed Virgin, and the Saints; but from the founding of the Cape Colony in 1652 no Divine Worship was permitted except according to the Dutch Reformed tradition. Soon after the first British seizure of the Cape in 1795, the Holy See's first efforts to evangelise southern Africa were frustrated by the tumult caused by the French Revolution. In 1803, following the restoration of the colony to the Dutch, she negotiated aid from the Batavian government for two Dutch priests to serve as army chaplains. Accompanied by a third priest mandated by the Holy See to evangelise the "Ottentoti", they arrived in October 1805 but four months later the newly victorious British repatriated all three along with the Dutch garrison.

On 7 June 1818, Pope Pius VII erected the Vicariate "of the Cape of Good Hope with adjacent territories, and the island of Madagascar", entrusting it to the English Benedictine Bede Slater to whom, the following year, the Mauritius Vicariate was also confided (March) as were the Australian colonies (April). On New Year's Day 1820, breaking his voyage to Mauritius, Bishop Slater left Fr Scully at Cape Town to serve the resident Catholics (mostly Irish soldiers). Scully built a church and parsonage and was succeeded by a Dutch priest Rev. Wagener and an English Benedictine Rev. Rishton (whose ministries overlapped). Fray Moral, a Spanish Dominican priest, ministered during calendar 1836. Slater, meanwhile, had been recalled from Mauritius and replaced by another Benedictine, Bishop Morris. In 1834 Gregory XVI relieved Morris of Australia and three years later of the reduced Cape Vicariate (Madagascar had been detached in 1829).

The Irish Dominican Patrick Griffith was appointed the first resident bishop for southern Africa in 1837 (the Briefs are dated 6 June). He disembarked at Cape Town on Holy Saturday 1838 (14 April). In July 1847, at his request, Pope Pius IX divided the Cape of Good Hope Vicariate into two: the Western District and the Eastern District.

Following a request made by Bishop Grimley in 1870 while in Rome for the Vatican Council, an Apostolic Brief dated 11 August 1874 announced the division of the Western Vicariate by the deduction of the Central Prefecture extending from Mossel Bay in the south-east to Namaqualand in the north. In 1885 lack of personnel obliged the Society of African Missions to resign the Prefecture. The southern part (now the diocese of Oudtshoorn) temporarily reverted to the bishop in Cape Town, and the northern part (now the dioceses of Keimoes-Upington and Keetmanshoop) was entrusted to the Oblates of St Francis de Sales.

In 1922 the southern part of the Central Prefecture was entrusted to the German Pallottines. On 13 June 1939, the names of the Western and Eastern Vicariates were changed to Cape Town and Port Elizabeth respectively.

On 11 January 1951, Pope Pius XII established the ecclesiastical hierarchy in southern Africa, elevating the vicariates to the rank of diocese organised as four ecclesiastical provinces each headed by an archdiocese. These incorporated all the ecclesiastical territories within the Republic of South Africa, Lesotho, Swaziland, and Botswana. Owen McCann (Vicar Apostolic since May 1950) was the first archbishop of Cape Town.

Further structural development has taken place since with the creation of new dioceses and the erection in 2007 of the province of Johannesburg and the reallocation of some suffragan sees.

The archdiocese is bounded on the north by the diocese of Keimoes-Upington, on the east by the diocese of Oudtshoorn, on the south by the Indian Ocean and on the west by the Atlantic Ocean. It comprises the City of Cape Town Metropolitan Municipality and these Local Municipalities: Swartland, Saldanha Bay, Bergvriever, Cederberg (West Coast District); Drakenstein, Stel-lenbosch (Cape Winelands District); Theewaterskloof, Overstrand and Cape Agulhas (Overberg District).

The islands of St Helena, Tristan da Cunha and Ascension were part of the Archdiocese of Cape Town from 1852 until 18 August 1986 when they were erected as a mission sui juris and transferred to the Prefecture of the Falklands with an Apostolic Administrator being Ecclesial Superior for these islands. This mission sui juris is one of only several others in the world and comes directly under the Congregation for the Evangelisation of the Peoples in Rome and the Holy Father. Since 1986 until 2008 the Prefecture had been in the care of the Mill Hill Fathers and priests of the Society of African Missions, but in 2016 Abbot Hugh Allan, OPraem was appointed with Episcopal rights and responsibilities as Prefect and Apostolic Superior.

The church dedicated to the Sacred Heart on the Island of St Helena was inaugurated for the first time in November 1852 by visiting Bishop Patrick Griffith, OP, Vicar Apostolate of the Western District (of the Cape of Good Hope) when he confirmed some 30-odd candidates.

The parish church on the Island of St Helena has the unique feature of being the oldest extant building after the cathedral in the Archdiocese, followed later by the re-building of the church in Simon's Town.

FRANCIS
BISHOP OF ROME
VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST

Successor of St Peter Prince of the Apostles, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church
Primate of Italy, Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Province of Rome
Sovereign of the State of the Vatican City

JORGE MARIO BERGOGLIO SJ was born on 17 December 1936 in Buenos Aires, Argentina; ordained priest in 1969. Served as Provincial of the Society of Jesus in Argentina from 1973 to 1979. On 20 May 1992, John Paul II appointed him titular Bishop of Auca and Auxiliary of Buenos Aires. He received episcopal consecration in the Cathedral of Buenos Aires on 27 June of that year. On 3 June 1997 he was appointed Coadjutor Archbishop of Buenos Aires and succeeded Cardinal Antonio Quarracino on 28 February 1998 and created and proclaimed a Cardinal by Pope John Paul II in the consistory of 21 February 2001. Following the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI on 28 February 2013, the conclave elected him on 13 March as the 266th Successor of St Peter. He chose the papal name FRANCIS in honour of St Francis of Assisi. He is the first Jesuit pope, to come from the Americas, and to come from the Southern Hemisphere. His ministry as Universal Pastor of the Church solemnly began on 19 March 2013.

ARCHDIOCESAN COLLECTIONS

NATIONAL: SACBC

Lenten Appeal: This collection is taken up on each of the six Sundays during the season of Lent. The money goes to the National Office of the Lenten Appeal and is allocated by the Bishops' Conference. It provides the Bishops with a means of running their Conference Headquarters in Pretoria, helping the poor, as well as contributing towards the education of priests in South Africa.

Social Communications' Sunday Collection: Supports the running of the Bishops' Conference Social Communications' Office in Pretoria. It is usually taken on the last Sunday of September. (Optional Collection).

LOCAL: ARCHDIOCESE OF CAPE TOWN

Advent Appeal: This collection is taken up on each of the four Sundays during the season of Advent. The proceeds are allocated by the Archdiocesan Finance Committee towards many charitable outreaches, pastoral training, for catechetical needs and for building and development projects in the Archdiocese of Cape Town.

Priests' Provident Fund: This fund provides for the needs of priests who, after years of faithful service in the Archdiocese, have now retired.

Priests' Medical Fund: Supports priests in active ministry who take ill, and as a result need hospitalisation, medical care or medication.

Ecclesiastical Education Fund: This collection belongs to the Archdiocese and is used exclusively for the upkeep and education of our own students to the Priesthood, as well as the ongoing formation of priests.

Seafarers' Sunday Collection: Helps to defray the costs of maintaining a full time chaplaincy to the port of Cape Town – attending to the needs of visiting seamen.

Prison Ministry Sunday: Prison Care and Support Network (PCSN) renders emotinal and spiritual support to prisoners and their families.

INTERNATIONAL:

1. PONTIFICAL MISSION SOCIETY

There are four Pontifical Collections taken up throughout the world during the year. The proceeds of these are sent to the Roman headquarters of the Pontifical Mission Society that make allocations from these funds around the world in Missionary territories (of which South Africa is one). The four collections are:

1) Mission Sunday: This is usually taken up on the third Sunday in October and helps the general needs of various Missions throughout the world.

2) Society for Missionary Children (formerly Holy Childhood): This is taken in January or February and the proceeds are for work among needy children around the Mission world, providing food, creches, pre-schools, health care, etc

3) Membership Sunday for the Propagation of the Faith (now called the Evangelisation of Peoples): The proceeds of this collection are sent to the headquarters of this organisation in Rome, by way of membership subscriptions to the Society. Members are also obliged to pray for the work of the missions. (Optional Collection).

4) Opus Sancti Petri: helps in the education of priests and religious throughout the missionary world.

2. HOLY FATHER

Peter's Pence: usually taken on the first Sunday in July, and the money is given to the Holy Father to enable him to aid victims of poverty and disaster throughout the world.

3. THE HOLY PLACES COLLECTION takes place every Good Friday. The purpose is to help in the upkeep of the holy places in the Holy Land. The money is sent to the Commissariate of the Holy Land.

Springfield Convent School

SINCE 1871

Springfield Convent School is a leading Independent Catholic Girls' School with classes from Nursery to Matric.

Rooted in the Dominican tradition, and basing our approach on Gospel values, we appreciate the uniqueness and importance of each person.

A time-honoured tradition of academic prestige, sporting triumphs and solid values, with a spiritual approach that is all embracing, provides the basis for outstanding and balanced schooling.

Situated in beautiful grounds in the historic suburb of Wynberg, Springfield has excellent facilities with a modern and well-equipped campus that matches the educational demands of a technologically advanced world. A beautiful chapel, a vibrant Music and Art School, numerous playing fields with a swimming pool complete the campus.

“The signs of the times will teach you what to do.”

Blessed Adolph Kolping (1813-1865)

- Family breakdown
- Unemployment
- Women and Child abuse
- And more.....

These signs of our times call us to action in no uncertain terms! As Christians, and as Kolping we are moved to respond, to bring hope and restore dignity.
