Dear Monsignors, Fathers, Brothers and Sisters

I can now confirm that Stephen Cardinal Brislin has been appointed Apostolic Administrator of Cape Town until a new Archbishop is appointed and takes over.

We thank the Cardinal for his inspired leadership of our Archdiocese over the years and assure him of our support while he is our Apostolic Administrator. We also congratulate him on his appointment and subsequent installation as Archbishop of Johannesburg, and also on having been elected President of the SACBC.

We also thank all concerned for their collaboration during this interregnum period.
